

Thank you for considering a Homesafe Inspections Franchise.

Franchising is a specialist field, and we recommend that you seek advice from a franchise specialist lawyer as a part of your due diligence activities.

They will assist you with:

- Understanding the franchise agreement and disclosure document
- Franchising Code of Conduct knowledge
- Conducting your due diligence before settlement
- Understanding your legal obligations as a new Franchise Partner
- Undertaking communication with Homesafe Inspections and their representatives

We are pleased to provide contact details for a panel of franchise specialist lawyers who can assist you.

By providing this information, Homesafe Inspections is not making any recommendations or warranties about these lawyers.

Please ensure you make your own independent enquiries before engaging a lawyer.
